

The Tattooed Lady Chords by The Kingston Trio

Difficulty: beginner

Tuning: E A D G B E

CHORDS

[Verse 1]

C
We came to town to see
C
That old tattooed lie-de
G7
She was a sight to see
C
Tattooed from head to knee.

[Verse 2]

C
My uncle Ned was there-ah
C
He came to gape and stare-ah
G7
"I never!" he declared
C
"Seen such a freak so fair!

[Refrain]

C
And on her jaw was the Royal Flying corp
G7
And on her back was the Union Jack
G7
Now could you ask for more?
C
All up and down her spine

Marched the Queen's own guards in line
G7
And all a-round her hips
C
Sailed a fleet of battle ships
C
And over her left kidney
F
Was a birds-eye view of Sydney

G7

But what we liked best was upon her chest

C

My little home in Wai-ki-ki

[Spoken]

N.C.

What did you say?

[Verse 1]

C

We came to town to see

C

That old tattooed lie-de

G7

She was a sight to see

C

Tattooed from head to knee.

[Verse 2]

C

My uncle Ned was there-ah

C

He came to gape and stare-ah

G7

"I never!" he declared

C

"Seen such a freak so fair!

[Refrain]

C

And on her jaw was the Royal Flying corp

G7

And on her back was the Union Jack

G7

Now could you ask for more?

C

All up and down her spine

Marched the Queen's own guards in line

G7

And all a-round her hips

C

Sailed a fleet of battle ships

C

And over her left kidney

F

Was a birds-eye view of Sydney

G7

But what we liked best was upon her chest

C

My little home in Wai-ki-ki